This is us

"My heart beats for the world of travel – and has done for many years. I lived in Bangkok for twelve years and worked in purchasing for Asia – a formative period full of vivid impressions and cultural diversity. After that, I worked in product management for dream destinations such as the Maldives, Sri Lanka and India – destinations that are still particularly close to my heart today.

At TUI, I was also jointly responsible for the DACH, UK, Nordics, Benelux, Russia and Kazakhstan markets – with a strong focus on international product and market development.

Today, Hendrik and I run our own business – and we have a fantastic team by our side who share our vision and put it into practice with great dedication. Our passion lies in hospitality and wellness. We represent hotels and DMCs with soul, history and heart – places and experiences that move, inspire and leave a lasting impression."

Lüdmila Grötz

"Numbers are my passion – and have been for many years." After working in sales, including at BMW, and in the real estate industry, I've developed a good sense of what really works and is sustainable in the long run. I think like an entrepreneur – always with the goal of a win-win situation.

Today, I run my own business together with Lüdmila. While she inspires with her heart, intuition, and sensitivity, I contribute structure, strategy, sales expertise, and financial acumen. This ensures that inspiring concepts also work in practice. We consciously rely on strong networks and partnerships, including with PATA and XO Private.

Our shared goal: to successfully position hotels and DMCs with character and substance in the market – honestly, collaboratively and with a genuine passion for quality."
